Conference for Educators:

“Who Is In Your Classroom? Knowing, Affirming, and Teaching Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Students”

Morning Intensive Institute with Dr. Sonia Nieto:

“Learning from Culturally Responsive and Socially Just Teachers”

Dr. Nieto will discuss her latest book, Finding Joy in Teaching Students of Diverse Backgrounds: Culturally Responsive and Socially Just Practices in U.S. Classrooms. Based on interviews with teachers around the nation, the book explores the values, beliefs, and practices of teachers who are successful with students of diverse backgrounds with implications for teachers, schools, and the preparation of teachers.

Afternoon sessions to further develop culturally responsive practice and pedagogy such as:

Knowing: Developing, Listening, and Honoring Student Voices

Affirming: Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Students in Your Classroom

Teaching: Race, Rights, Membership, and the Common Core

Lunch Panel Presentation:

“Infusing Equity in Educational Practices and Evaluation”

Reception: to follow at the Colorado History Center. Join us at the Race Exhibition before the public!
